

Please do not change Indiana's No Call List to allow banks and other organizations with which consumers have a relationship to call their customers at their homes as part of a telemarketing program.